Mr. Will Anderson, of Alabama, is visiting Mr. Josh Kemper. He preached a fine sermon at the Fork Sunday. If people would only take some of the good advice how much happier we all would be. Sowing wild oats, we will never reap pleasures.

More About The Kings Mountain Graded School.

In a letter last week to the INTERIOR JOURNAL J. W. Acton and M. G. Murphy made the following statement in regard to Kings Mountain Graded School: At a regular meeting of the board of trustees in May, when we retired as President and Secretary, Dr. Acton informed them that the tax had to be levied in June and that Murphy urged the secretary to see that the tax was levied in fiscal year. This was never put before the board in that way, but we were informed that we had plenty of time to levy the tax and all members of the board were willing to levy the tax at any time, but thought it not necessary to make the levy so early. We did not have a copy of the school law and failed to get one and were compelled to depend upon the retiring president and secretary, who did have the school law for information. In their letter they say they retired as president and secretary in May. Officers of the new board were not elected until the 4th day of June. In Murphy's statement he said he urged the secretary to see that tax was levied in fiscal year. On or about July 10th when Murphy was asked if he knew the time had passed to levy tax, he answered: "Yes, I knew it had to be levied in June but didn't think there was any use saying anything about it." We are sorry the tax was not levied but are willing to bear our part of the criticism and expect other members of the board to do the same.

OUSTS DEMOCRATS.

JUDGE PARKER, after holding up the cases for nearly two years, decided Wednesday that Mayor John Skain, Assessor Doyle, Attorney Muir and Jailor Masner, Lexington officials, were not elected to those offices because of alleged fraud in the election and declared the offices vacant. We are not fully familiar with the status of these cases, but it looks like the judge was actuated, somewhat at least, by pique because the democrats did not want to have him become a life tenant of the office of circuit judge of Fayette county, which he has held for 18 years, and decided to contest the nomination for another term with him with Mr. George R. Hunt. Judge Parker announced his candidacy for renomination, but subsequently withdrew in an ill-tempered manner, claiming that the political authorities had stacked the cards on him in the selection of election officials. Since then he seems to have been listening to the siren voice of the republicans to become an independent candidate to succeed himself. Therefore, there are those who take the decision as a further bid for republican support, and that he will run against the democratic nominee. Judge Parker's former standing as a democrat, however, precludes such an idea with those who think they know him best. The near future will disclose which is right. If the judge announces for the office now he will lay himself liable to the severest criticism, and make those democrats who have believed him a democrat from principle and not for revenue only, regard him with scorn and derision. The decision was immediately appealed and if the highest court affirms it, which those who know say it can not do, the successors of the deposed officials will be made by the city council and not by the governor. The result of the decision will, therefore, mean nothing to the deposed except a little money and worry, as they would, in all probability, be re-appointed. The difference between this case and the Louisville case is that all the officers there were deposed, and there was no appointing power except the governor.

THE State Journal, in every issue, hints darkly of a ferocious correspondence between those mighty warriors, Secretary of State Bruner and Commissioner of Insurance Bell, which we gather grew over some difference of opinion as to the merits of the Citizens Life Insurance Co. Our curiosity has been greatly aroused by the allusions and it is hoped that the correspondence will be given to an anxious public. However, it is strange if these mighty warriors want to fight that they do not show it by pulling off their coats, rolling up their sleeves and getting at it, roll and tumble on the green sward of Capital Square. To us out in the rural districts it doesn't look brave for men occupying the same building to carry on a war-like correspondence when they could exchange their compliments by word of mouth.

HON. CASSIUS M. CLAY made a strong plea at Paris Monday against pooling tobacco and showed that it could not be successfully accomplished except by lawlessness and bloodshed, such as disgraced the State last year. A good many of us agree with Mr. Clay but regard it as bad policy for any one to interfere in the present fight which promises to result as did the famous contest between the Kilkenny cats, that is to say in the annihilation of both.

EDITOR WATTESON has beat a hasty retreat to Europe just as Editor Beckham opened his batteries on him. The public hoped to see a battle royal but disappointment hangs over us like dark pall. It would have been worth the price of admission many times over. The great editor doubtless regards discretion as the better part of valor and we rural roosters see where he is right. Mr. Watteason's political armor is too full of holes to withstand the sling of the young David.

UP to the day of the adoption of the conference report on the tariff, the discussions in the House and Senate took 4,888 pages of the Congressional Record to hold them, or a total of 9,776,000 words. Was there ever such a waste of breath and effort when the majority did after all what it intended to do from the start?

THE Alabama House has passed a State-wide prohibition bill by the overwhelming majority of 75 to 19. The Senate will follow suit. It begins to look like the State-wide business is becoming contagious. We move to make it unanimous.

THE wave of prohibition is given as a reason for the big decrease of internal revenue in the last fiscal year. It amounts to twenty-five millions and a quarter of dollars, and there is much alarm in the department.

A COLORADO man says that only the negro votes in that State. It is

SOUTH CAROLINA is now in the State-wide prohibition class, but it is only temporary. There are 21 wet and 21 dry counties in the State, and the wet counties are to hold an election on the 17th. The last Legislature provided that for two weeks before, and the same time after the election the wet counties shall cease the sale of liquor. The prohibitionists scored a victory by requiring no election in the dry counties, which will remain dry. The dispensary system there has made prohibitionists of a large number, and it is thought that nearly all the counties will go dry.

GEN. P. P. JOHNSTON, who, after high honors from the democratic party, is filling the office of adjutant general by the appointment of a republican governor, caned a Louisville newspaper man for referring to him as "Peacock" P. Johnston. The doughty general would doubtless kill a man if he were to refer to him, which, let it be understood we do not, as Philander Piddie-sticks Johnston. As an ex-newspaper man he should not be so thin skinned, and he is personally too clever to let his angry passions rise.

AFTER Dr. Nuttall, charged with taking advantage of a female idiot under his charge while superintendent of the Feeble Minded Institute, had time to flee to the mountains of Hepesidam or some other dam place, the governor has offered a reward of $500 for his arrest. Great bodies move slowly, but in justice to the governor it may be said that he has to be requested by the authorities before offering rewards except in certain cases. A screw seems to be loose somewhere though.

THE Frankfort News announces that it will erect a $60,000 office building, but makes the fatal mistake of saying in telling about it "The News has come to stay." If it survives this assertion it will do what no other paper has done that made it. Papers that say they have come to stay usually stay but a short time, here to-day and gone to-morrow.

A GOOD many members of the House were absent without pair when the vote for the question for which the extra session was called was taken. There is nothing more cowardly than dodging an issue so as to be able to get the most out of the result.

THE periodical that pays a dollar a word for Bwana Tumbo's contributions gives renewed evidence of a quick appreciation of the fool and his money. Almost any country weekly has editorials just as bright and fully as instructive.

MAINE used to go hell bent for Gov. Kent, but Virginia is not built that way, especially since Nominee Kent is a republican.

Chas. Pike, of Knoxville, presented his sister Miss Eliza, of this place, with a fine upright piano.

Prof. Teagarden, who was to have taught the graded school here, has withdrawn and now there is an opening here for some good teacher.

Rans Brown, of near Quail, who suffered a stroke of paralysis, died and was buried in the Providence cemetery last Saturday. Mr. Brown was a highly respected citizen of the Glades section.

The Hamiltonian Society will give three fine entertainments here during week of fair. At present we are unable to give name of each play but we vouch for a good show, as the participants have been very busy practicing for some time.

Mr. J. G. Frith asks us to say that the large potato which he raised was an Irish potato, thinking that some may think it a sweet potato. We were laughed at for saying it weighed 1 1/2 pounds but it beat that; it actually weighed one pound and nine ounces.

Kennie Anderson, aged 19 years, a son of B. C. Anderson, of near here, died Tuesday afternoon about 3 o'clock of lock jaw, caused by a mash or bruise of the hand he had received at his father's saw mill one day last week. The wound, thought to be getting well until Sunday night when he took lock jaw. All medical aid could not save him. Undertaker J. C. McClary, of Stanford, came up Tuesday night and took charge of remains, preparing them for burial. They were taken to Goshen cemetery and buried Wednesday afternoon. Kennie was a good boy and had not an enemy. Our sympathies to his parents and brothers.

Mrs. Elva Melvin, of Boone county, is visiting Mrs. J. T. Cherry. Mrs. Melvin was formerly Miss Elva Moore and was assistant teacher in the school here 22 years ago. Mrs. Ellen Mahaffy, of this place, and her sister, Mrs. Robt. Hamm, of the Sayers neighborhood, visited Mrs. Galen Rogers at Crab Orchard. Mrs. Louisa Cade, of New Albany, Ind., after an absence of 25 years, is with relatives here. L. A. Testaman is visiting in Jonesville, Va. Misses Helen Sayers and Minnie Gentry, of Spiro, visited here first of week. Mr. Kidwell, of Lebanon Junction, was a visitor here first of week. Editor E. S. Albright and J. Matt Ballard, of Mt Vernon, were here Monday.

About five miles south of here towers a knob known as Cable Knob which can be seen for miles around, more especially a few years ago on account of a party of geological surveyors cleaning off the underbrush, leaving a tall poplar tree standing on the highest point; but a man living near the foot of the knob, not knowing or seemingly not caring that the tree was left standing for a purpose best known to Uncle Sam also thinking he had a coon up it, cut down the tree, thus leaving the top of the knob bare and such it is today, except small underbrush. At the foot of this knob and way back perhaps in the 40's one Daniel Hamm, hailing from Charlotte county, Va., bought a farm and settled down upon it, where he reared a family of a dozen or more children, among whom, and the youngest, is our friend and near neighbor, Oscar F. Hamm, who is now 47 years old and young for his age. Oscar has a great big heart in him and if any one wishes to leave the hustle, bustle and worry of town or city to seek a cool retreat or "a lodge in some vast wilderness" we know of no one who would take a greater delight in entertaining than would our friend Oscar. At the age of 19 he married Miss Pauline Colyer, but she died in a few years leaving two sons, Sam, now out West, and Mode, who lives near here. At 37 he took for his second wife Miss Mollie, daughter of W. B. Sayers. The Sayers family is one of the pioneers of the State. At the time of his death W. B. Sayers was the oldest Mason in the State. Our neighbor, Mr. Hamm, is an up-to-date farmer and owns two fine farms. He has recently built a fine new residence at the South end of what used to be the "Hunk Race Track." Oscar is of Baptist persuasion, using his own words "a bad democrat," and a subscriber to the I. J.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Sold by New Stanford Drug Co.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold—do not allow it to develop into a chronic cough, and use the Irritated Bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how many things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must be law to be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance that, particularly with your children, insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

THE Chautauqua was to have begun at Walton's Opera House last night with Mr. Gardner and quartette as the star attractions for the evening. On account of a special session of the Chautauqua being held at Central City and the tent being in service there, Walton's Opera House was secured and will be used throughout the meeting.

MR. WILLIAM W. WHITE, the Lytle merchant, has rented of McCarty and Hughes the store-room adjoining the Theatrum and will move his stock of goods to it soon. Mr. White's many friends here extend to him the glad hand on becoming a citizen of the best town on the map. By the way, Messrs. McCarty and Hughes bought the two Owsley store-rooms of Hon. GARAGE.—Mr. John Owsley Reid has rented the vacant store-room in the Odd Fellows' building on Main street and will open a garage. He will also put in a couple of fine livery cars for the convenience of the public and also install a repair shop. AT a meeting of the stockholders of the Waynesburg Deposit Bank Monday the following directors were re-elected: Dr. J. W. Acton, R. Curtis, H. H. Singleton, J. A. Hays, Dr. A. K. Caldwell, C. C. FARM FOR SALE.—115-acre farm on Dix river, four miles North of Stanford and near Hubble. Improvements fairly good and splendid new barn. J. F. Rigney, Stanford.

MRS. JOSIE RANEY, who had three ribs broken and was severely cut about the head by a fall from the buggy she was riding in, is resting easy and her doctors think she will recover beyond doubt.

HIGH-CLASS ENTERTAINMENT.—Commonwealth's Attorney C. A. Hardin, who attended the meeting of the Chautauqua at Harrodsburg, considers it a high-class entertainment throughout. He told an I. J. man that Senator Reagan is exceedingly fine, the Loose Family, musicians and singers, are great and that Rev. Charles Hall is an orator of a very high order. He says our people should attend every session of the chautauqua which begun yesterday and that they will miss a treat if they fail to do so.

MUCH interest is being manifested in S. J. Bell having the Republican nomination in Lincoln county for sheriff, which is practically assured. He has hundreds of friends in Casey, where he was reared, who would like to see him get there. With a split in the democratic party, Mr. Bell will have a walkover.—Liberty News. Brer John Hennerly Thomas may be right about the interest in Mr. Bell by his Casey county friends, but he is all wrong on the split. Lincoln county democrats are in good fighting trim and Mr. Bell or any other republican would have about as much show of being elected here as a democrat would in Leslie county. Come up, Mr. Thomas, and see for yourself.

SHANKS FOR SPEAKER.—Representative William H. Shanks, of Lincoln county, who is the democratic nominee for re-election in his county, said here to-day that he will certainly be a candidate for Speaker of the next House of the General Assembly. Mr. Shanks as yet has no opposition for re-election, and anticipates no trouble, if the Republicans do put a candidate in the field. He says furthermore that Senator "Took" Hubble, who also hails from Lincoln, will be re-elected without trouble. The Republicans in Casey county are all split up, and Jason Wesley, their candidate for Senator, will lose many votes, Mr. Shanks thinks. So far there are five announced candidates for the honor of presiding as Speaker in the first House that will assemble in the new Capitol. Besides Mr. Shanks there are George S. Wilson, of Union county, J. F. Porter, of Webster, Harry Schoberth, of Woodford, and Col. Jack Chinn, of Mercer.—Frankfort Cor. Courier-Journal. Mr. Shanks' legion of friends here and elsewhere in Kentucky would like to see him made Speaker or the recipient of any other honor he could ask.

FOR SALE.—Sow and six pigs. Mrs. L. H. Stone, Stanford.

DOESN'T that bath-room in Warner's window remind you that you need one?

THE L. & N. will make a reduced rate of $12.65 to Mammoth Cave Aug. 25. This includes board at the hotel and entrance fee to the cave.

SQUIRE JOHN EDMISTON will celebrate his 83rd birthday at Crab Orchard to-day. Mrs. W. J. Edmiston will give him a big dinner, to which a large number of friends and relatives have been invited.

MR. R. E. GAINES, agent for the Indiana Silo Co., is meeting with much success in the sale of silos in this county. He has already sold 20 and trades are on for as many more. See Mr. Gaines if you contemplate putting up one of the great feed preservers.

$650 PIANO.—A good business proposition. I will sell Myrtle's Grand Epworth Piano Style T. for $50 cash, and $10 per month for 25 months with 5 per cent. interest, to any one who will make a negotiable note. This is a very handsome piano. If not equal to any $600 Steinway, or any $600 Knabe; then you can have this beautiful piano for nothing. I have bought three pianos from three firms, seven church organs from five different firms. I believe the Williams Organ and Piano Company of Chicago, the most reliable firm in America. Come to the Methodist parsonage and see, and try the piano. T. W. Barker.

He won the sweepstake with one of his fine two-year-old mules. He came very nearly making a clean sweep.—Advocate.

There strayed from my place about May 10th a large work steer. Deep red, natural muley. Will weigh about 1,250 pounds; had a coarse-toned bell on when he left home. When last heard of was near South Fork bridge in Lincoln county. Will pay liberal reward for his return. Clay Elliott, Humphrey, Ky.

At the Danville fair Tuesday J. H. Baughman, of this place, won second money in the ring for best horse mule under one year; first in ring for mare mule under one year; first and second in mule either sex one year and under two; second in mule either sex, two years and under three; second on mule either sex, any age; second on mare and mule colt; first on best pair of mules. PECULIAR INTEREST

Attaches to the Catalog of the Big Blue Grass Fair to Be Held in August.

COVER IS A THING OF ART

The Great Animal Artist, George Ford Morris, Has Contributed His Genius to Give a Fit Setting For Sumptuous Work—Over $25,000 to Be Given Away.

The catalog of the big Blue Grass Fair, which is to be held at Lexington the week of August 9th to 14th, has been issued. It is a book of peculiar interest to all Kentuckians and is more extensive than the catalog of any previous fair ever held at Lexington. The cover itself is very attractive. It is a design especially drawn by the great animal artist, George Ford Morris, and is arranged in panels. The top panel shows the four classes of cattle which are of particular interest to Kentuckians, namely, the Shorthorn, the Hereford and the Aberdeen-Angus of the beef breeds, and the Jersey of the dairy breed. The lower panel, which is of corresponding size, shows the four recognized classes of horses which the Blue Grass Fair includes in its premium list, namely, the thoroughbred, the standard bred and the five-gaited and three-gaited saddle horse. The side panels give excellent pictures of sheep and hogs.

Over $25,000 to Be Given Away.

The premium list calls for a total distribution of more than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars, which is equitably divided among the varied classes of live stock. The most of this money is naturally offered for horses, because the Blue Grass Fair is conceded to be the greatest horse show in the world. Breeding classes are offered for the three recognized American breeds, the thoroughbred, the standard bred and the American saddle horse. In each instance registration is made a requirement of entry. The show classes are thrown open to the world. They include the five-gaited saddle horse, for which there are twelve rings; the three-gaited saddle horse with eight rings; the fine harness horse with twelve rings; the roadster with twelve rings, and the heavy harness horse with three rings. In addition there are premiums for miscellaneous classes of horses, such as the run-about horse and the plantation saddle horse. There are classes for Shetland ponies and for ponies other than Shetlands of various size to be shown under saddle and to harness.

Other Live Stock.

Very liberal provision is made for both mules and jack stock. Eleven hundred dollars is offered for Shorthorn cattle; five hundred dollars for Herefords; six hundred and fifty for Aberdeen-Angus; seven hundred dollars for Jerseys. There are also classes for fat stock, with such provisions that any farmer who has a steer of any merit can find an excellent place to enter him.

Departments for swine and sheep include the most important breeds of such stock. A large amount of money is offered for poultry. And a department has been added this year which should appeal particularly to farmers. Including as it does practically all classes of farm products grown in Kentucky. The Woman's Department carries a very excellent premium list. There will be first-class harness and running races practically every day of the fair. Among the former is a thousand-dollar stake for two-year-old trotters, which will be contested on Tuesday, August 10th, the second day.

Daily Program.

The opening day, Monday, will be given over to automobile races, which proved a most popular feature of last year's fair. This year many of the most noted drivers from every section of the country will compete.

On Tuesday morning, jacks and jennets and Hereford cattle will be shown and a number of classes of sheep and hogs will be judged in their pens. Besides the racing of Tuesday afternoon, there will be an excellent show program for various classes of horses.

Wednesday morning will have the breeding classes for standard bred horses, the Jersey cattle and more sheep and swine. Wednesday afternoon will be devoted to crops, and to other excellent show classes, including the handsome Smith, Watkins & Co. trophy.

Thousand Dollar Stake.

On Thursday morning will come the breeding classes for American saddle horses, the Shorthorn cattle and the fat stock. And as a feature of Thursday afternoon's horse show will be the big Thousand Dollar Stake for five-gaited saddle horses, which should prove the best saddle ring ever seen in Kentucky.

Mules and Aberdeen-Angus cattle will hold the boards Friday morning, with another excellent horse show and racing in the afternoon.

Saturday, the closing day, will witness the greatest display of thoroughbred horses ever seen in the world, nearly ten thousand dollars being given in money and in seasons to help make the show. On Saturday afternoon comes the crowning show program of the week, when the championships in all the horse classes will be contested.

Taken as a whole, this is the best and most complete show program ever offered by a fair in the south.

One Judge System.

As in previous years, the one judge system will be used for all classes, save the championships for horses, when three judges, chosen from the regular list of horse judges of the fair, will be used in each class.

The catalog of the Blue Grass Fair is well worthy of careful inspection. Thousands of copies have been mailed all over Kentucky and other states, but anyone who has not received a copy and who desires one, will secure same promptly upon request to Secretary Jonett Shouse, at Lexington.

AUTOMOBILE RACING

Drivers of National Repute to Risk Lives at Blue Grass Fair.

It seems altogether fitting that the greatest horse fair in the world should show its appreciation of the importance of the most marvelous mechanical invention of the age.

The Blue Grass Fair at Lexington will give up its opening day, Aug. 9th, to a superior program of automobile racing. There is no other form of racing so thrilling to the spectator, so intensely interesting or indeed so dangerous as is automobile racing on a circular track. When a glint car is speeding around the turns at a rate of better than a mile a minute, any slip of a cog, any accident to engine or to tire is apt to bring about very disastrous results.

Such a program of races has been provided for Automobile Day at the Blue Grass Fair that the attendance of the most famous drivers in America is assured, and it is well within probability to prophesy that many records for various distances over circular tracks will be broken during that afternoon of sport.

Not only will abundant events be provided for these drivers of national repute, and not only will stirring exhibitions against time be witnessed, but there will also be included in the program events for local cars, which are becoming numerous throughout Central Kentucky, so as to allow every opportunity to prove the comparative merits of cars owned in different parts of the state.

The Blue Grass Fair was responsible for a marked innovation among fairs when it put an Automobile Day on its program last year. The result of the experiment was so successful, the evidences of interest on the part of the public so real, the attendance so large and the demand for a repetition so great that there was no hesitancy to provide an Automobile Day for this year's fair, and with the increased premiums which will be offered and the larger number of drivers who have already pledged themselves to compete this day is certain to prove even more successful than was the Automobile Day of the 1908 fair.

GREAT POULTRY EXHIBIT

The Blue Grass Fair Will Have Them All Topped in This Line.

At no other fair ever held in Kentucky have the conditions for the poultry exhibit been made so attractive as for the big Blue Grass Fair, which comes at Lexington the week of Aug. 9th to 14th this year. Entrance fees, which have heretofore been required at practically all poultry shows, have been abolished by the management of the Blue Grass Fair, who, in their liberality and their desire to encourage the best possible exhibition, have been willing to do away with this source of revenue. Several years ago the association constituted a complete and up-to-date house for the holding of its poultry show, a house where every convenience can be had by exhibitors, where the poultry can be displayed to the very best advantage.

Not only are all kinds of chickens cared for in the premium list, but there are also classes for ducks, geese, turkeys and pigeons, a total of 266 rings to the department.

The show will be under the management of a committee composed of Messrs. O. R. Williamson, E. H. Wrenn and E. L. Smith, all of whom are prominent members of the Blue Grass Poultry and Poultry Stock Association and who are exerting their very best efforts to make the poultry show at the Blue Grass Fair the best ever seen in the state.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

Especially Attractive Provision For Children at Blue Grass Fair.

There will be especially attractive provision for children at the big Blue Grass Fair this year. On Saturday, August 14th, the closing day, the admission fee for children between the ages of six and twelve, which is generally twenty-five cents, will be reduced to fifteen cents, and among the children who attend on that day two Shetland ponies will be given away absolutely free.

Furthermore, the classes for Shetland ponies, which are always a great attraction for the young folks, will be shown on Saturday afternoon, and there will be other features that will serve to interest and attract and entertain the children which will not obtain during the other days of the fair.
